

Focus on the Future!

Week Five

This week's bulletin brings you a new careers resource that you might be familiar with during recent weeks.

BBC Bitesize careers

B B C Bitesize

This could be useful for younger year groups who want a more visual guide to careers. To use this resource simply click on this link:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/careers>

Here you will find access to an A-Z of careers, each gives a young person's experience of this job role via short films.

You will also find guides to college, apprenticeships and university

As well as daily lessons there are new films on careers in specific industries.

You can also click on Tips and Advice along the top tab:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/collections/tips-and-advice/1>

Here you will see guides on running a business, creating your own brand and get advice from top entrepreneurs and business owners too!

Please email me if you need any help accessing these websites and I can explain further.

I am available Wednesday: leaves@ramseyacademy.com
